ABOUT ME

I am a versatile Graphic & Presentation Designer with strong proficiency in video editing, script writing, and the filmmaking process, enabling me to bring a complete storytelling perspective to every project. My work blends creativity with strategic intent—transforming complex information into clear, visually compelling narratives that resonate with audiences. With expertise in corporate presentations, brand communication, and visual storytelling, I ensure that every design and video aligns with organizational objectives and enhances brand impact. I value collaboration, precision, and innovation—striving to deliver high-quality visual content that not only informs but inspires.

2022-2026

RR Donnelley, Chennai

Senior presentation designer & QC

Over the years, I've worked across a diverse range of graphic design, presentation, and video production projects, collaborating with teams to deliver impactful visual communication. My experience spans developing brand identities, designing corporate and investor decks, creating motion graphics and video edits, and crafting scripts that align creative storytelling with business objectives. I have consistently contributed to improving presentation aesthetics, maintaining brand consistency, and enhancing audience engagement through strategic design thinking and creative execution. Proficient in Adobe InDesign, I have created and managed a variety of digital layouts including brochures, annual reports, pitch decks, brand guidelines, and marketing collaterals. My two years of work in InDesign involves structuring multi-page documents, ensuring typographic consistency, aligning visual hierarchy, and preparing print-ready files that meet brand and production standards.
